RAIN SPOILS FORSYTH SPORT.

Yesterday's Forsyth card was spoiled by the declaring off of the seven furlong handicap, yet the racing was fairly good over a sticky track. It was a good afternoon for the ring. Only two favorites, Terrific and Uncas won.

Terrific was the best thing of the meeting, and some of the sharpshooters bet on the filly at 4 to 1. She went to the post at even money and never gave her backers a chance to worry, getting off with the track and winning all the way.

J. E. Cushing had a good day, winning two purses with Miss Hoy and Harry Shannon. The big fellow thought well of the two year old and had a bet on her at 3 to 1. She is a sweet article right now on a soft track, and won her race like a lady, being in front from flag fall to finish.

Harry Shannon looked to be asked too hard a task but he won just as easily as did the filly. Glenmoynne, favorite for the race, performed badly, not being in the first three.

Uncas, at odds on, beat the flag and won the fifth event off by himself, and Buckmore easily landed the hurdle race.

Ed Tipton left last night for Lexington. He has had great success here and will get a lot of horses for the Montana meeting.

RILEY GRANNAN'S KEEN SUIT.

Mr. Belmont declares last Tuesday's appellate court decree, which on the line of good turf law voided the decision which expelled Riley Grannan, as bad law of the land, and declared to contest it. That's right. The case driven to the highest court in America will better the turf by reason of making its road clearer and broader. This holds good no matter if the final decision is for or against Grannan. What the American turf most wants is high-class legal consideration. The law usually doled out to it has been the law of evasion.

RACING GOSSIP.

The most recent and one of the vilest tintinulations of the daily press about Gold Bug and Jas. Hunter, his owner, is in circulation. It started in San Francisco and is still going on. The action was over the third Oakland race of April 15 in which Gold Bug finished fifth. Hunter is said to have staked "his life"—Gold Bug went up from 6 to 10 to 1, in the betting, so that the merciless ring could not have valued the Hunterian existence very highly—and lost it. Gold Bug was beaten some eleven lengths by horses which should have beaten him. Hunter may be well known—in spots. The general turf wots not of him. The average news on human lines might have run to the idea of a debauch in line with finance and passed the episode up. But instead of the facts, a cheap romance was built and printed. Such facts do harm to the turf. The pernicious public hamper, which strikes racing so hard and so augustly, is made out of metal moulded by just such fake stories. The cold facts are that Hunter is obscure or is unknown, Gold Bug a dog and that a cheap story built for sale was bought and printed by newspapers whose editors should have their heads "fixed."

The newspaper talk about the Carson fight pictures agitated the ultra conservatism of various localities to legislative action and hasn't helped the real object of the Western episode. The talk about the failure of photography, as applied to the fight, was that of blufferism. The pictures are all right. They will be developed, arranged in a mechanical way and shown. Laws against such exhibitions are out of line. There is hardly one chance in ten that they would, if passed, stand any sort of a legal test.

Why should they? There is no indecency or immorality about them. Indecent or immoral pictures are the only kind of pictures within the reasonable prohibition of the law. The story of the fight in the daily and weekly papers were far more worthy of the prohibition barrier of the reformer than the pictures of it all. The latter are true and uniform. The former were not.

Winner—Ch. f, 3, by Terra Cotta—Emma B.
Post 15 minutes. Start good. Won easily. It was a long hard drive for the place. Terrific was in a soft spot and heavily played. Woodlake ran a good race from where he got off. He will be worth a bet next time. Dr. Newman was interfered with on first turn. He would have been second in another jump. Cochina ran well. A bad lot. The best horse won.

Post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third driving hard. Miss Hoy is a sweet article in the mud. It took Cherry Bounce a long while to get on his stride. His race was not true. Algareta and Little Helen were off badly. The latter ran a real good race. Ironical seems stale.
Overweights—Globe II, 4 pounds; Robert Hiner, 3.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won pulled up; second rather handily; third driving. Harry Shannon was the best. He is in good form right now. Glenmoynne was in his own way. He appears too heavy headed for Barrett to ride. Irish Lady's game is mud.
Scratched—Percy, 107; Evanatus, 104.
